Saalfeld Feengrotten – Display Mine

The Feengrotten has earned a proud place in the Guinness Book of World Records as the most colourful showcaves in the world. Today, it is one of the most popular tourist attractions in Thuringia and stands as an impressive testimony to mining in the Middle Ages.

Many centuries ago, the first miners began their search for gold, silver and other prized metals under the city of Saalfeld. However, it was alum shale that was discovered here, a mineral used for the processing of alum and vitriol. As the mineral was extracted, an underground cave was created which, over time, filled slowly with a fascinating dripstone world.

During your guided tour deep under ground, you will learn about the creation of the mine, the minerals, the stalactites and the stalagmites, as well as the life and times of the Medieval miners.

Grottoneum – A Museum to Discover

For those who have ever wondered how the magnificent caves at the Saalfeld Feengrotten were created, a unique museum has been created just for you.

At the Museum Grottoneum, listening, reading, touching, smelling and tasting are the order of the day. Medieval miners, precious minerals and giant scorpions from the Silurian Sea await you on your tour of discovery through this subterranean world.

Learn how miners in the Middle Ages lit their lamps and brought fresh air deep underground. Let your imagination run wild as you puzzle together the colourful minerals and the molecules of the fairy caves. Visit the Grotto cinema and discover the hidden secrets of the Feengrotten.

Feenweltchen – A Magical Other World

Would you like to meet a real fairy? Then come and visit the Feenweltchen Fairyworld Adventure Park, above the Feengrotten. Walk through the magical fairy gates and dive into a fascinating world of fairies and nature spirits. Discover the Garden of the Fairy Plants, the Grove of the Light Elves and the Empire of the Forest Spirits.

Linger and enjoy exciting stories, wood and sound activities, listening posts and much, much more. All you need are a spirit of adventure and a blossoming fantasy, sturdy shoes and a good 7,000 seconds of time. The fairies are waiting for you from May to October.
